

Dear international students

Be careful with a sales pitch claiming to make an easy money!

Some international students unintentionally assist in crimes after having been offered "a job to make an easy money". Pay attention to the following cases in order to avoid getting involved in criminal conducts.

"I didn't know that" won't get you nowhere!
Follow rules, be careful not to be involved in criminal acts and enjoy yourself living and studying in Japan.

Stay on alert for phishing e-mails!!

There are increasing cases involving malicious e-mails and short messages in an attempt to guide you to phishing websites where you are asked to enter your personal information such as your residential address and credit card number. Those mails are often disguised as credit card companies or financial institutions.

Don't access to the link address appeared on phishing e-mails/short messages and never enter your personal information.

This postage looks fun. I am getting in touch with him.

I want that new game software now on sale. But I am short of my allowance. ①

Do I get that much money just reshipping a package from home?

A package is sent to your home.
All you have to do is to forward the package to the address I instruct.
3,000 Yen per package
You will get paid in electronic money.

I see.

③

Now I've got quite an allowance. I am going to buy that brand-new game software! ⑤

I got the package! All I have to do is to forward it to the instructed address. It's simple and easy! ④

Police!? Have I done anything wrong? ⑥
